

Admission Requirements

The Breath of God Association is an association of legally ordained and internationally accredited pastors and ministers with its headquarters in The Woodlands, Tx. 77389 USA. We have admission applications available for people who reside anywhere in the world, they must request their request in writing to: directorio@AlientodeDios.com

We wish to clarify to all pastors who do not have legal documents in the United States, but have their churches incorporated through the state, we will be accepting applications for admission to pastors. If you are a pastor of a church that is incorporated, you may request your credentials regardless of your legal status. If you wish, you may write to us and make a special request.

If you wish to apply for affiliation with Aliento de Dios, you must submit the Affiliation Form for admission and go through the evaluation process before receiving a determination from our board. Under normal circumstances, the evaluation process takes between 15 to 30 days before being approved. Our Association is legally qualified to affiliate churches, pastors and ministers.

Before applying for admission with Aliento de Dios, you must meet the following requirements:

1. May have affiliation with another council. Dual membership is accepted by this Affiliation as long as we have the same mission of reaching lost souls through Jesus.

Note: As a church pastor you have the option to affiliate the church or not affiliate it.

2. You must have a call from God that has been confirmed by serious signs.
3. Must be baptized by immersion. Baptisms by sprinkling are not recognized by this association.
4. Must be an active member of some church, in a stable capacity and subject to pastoral authority.
5. You must respect your body as the temple of the Holy Spirit, abstaining from all kinds of contamination of substances harmful to the body.
6. You can be single or married by the church and/or civilly, with a stable and firm marriage. Your spouse must be in complete agreement and support with your clerical calling.
7. Although our evaluation is based on the new creature, it is absolutely necessary that the applicant have a clean testimony, for which we do an investigation of the civil background. (5 years)
8. Must be willing to comply with the regulatory standards of this association as a measure of loyalty and ministerial ethics.
9. You must have a sound doctrine that is compatible with our Testament of Faith and that is based on the Holy Bible, and have extensive knowledge of the Word of God, whether through personal, academic, ecclesiastical, institutional studies or through theological seminaries. It is not necessary to have a high school diploma.

Admission

If you agree with everything you have read about the Breath of God Association and consider yourself compatible with our doctrine, then we invite you to become part of our great family of accredited pastors and ministers. Send an email to directorio@AlientodeDios.com

The process for admission to the Aliento de Dios Association is carried out in the following phases:

1. When submitting your application, our evaluation commission will review your form and send you a message confirming that we have received your application for credentials and admission to the Aliento de Dios Association (Breath of God).
2. The evaluation commission will begin the investigation process into your testimony.
3. If we find any problem in your civil background, the commission will send you a message about it. On the contrary, we will notify you to carry out a telephone or video interview for the day and time that you have indicated in your request. Our interview takes an average of 15 to 20 minutes, so both you and your spouse must be available at the time of said interview. (In certain cases the interview is not necessary)
4. After the interview the commission will determine whether your application has been approved or disapproved. In any case, a message will be sent to you regarding this.
5. If your application is approved, you will be asked for copies of your marriage certificate or certificate as proof of its validity and marital legality. The Aliento de Dios Association does not accredit pastors in a Free Union or cohabitation.
6. You will be asked for a passport-type photo, in color and with a white background, for the credentials that will be sent to you.
7. As the penultimate phase, the commission will carry out the records of the accreditation, titling and legal certification of the credentials.
8. Finally, the association will send you your certification and credentials as soon as we have received the amount corresponding to the annual fee. (30 dollars)
9. For more information on the annual membership fee, review our section titled: Membership Fee. If you would like us to send you a request by email, please send us a message to directorio@AlientodeDios.com and we will gladly send it to you as soon as possible.
10. Our email service responds to messages within 2 to 5 days of receiving them.
